

True Comedy "Getting Giggles for God"

Job 8:21 He will fill your mouth with laughter & your lips.....

Biography

Kristy Smith, a.k.a "True Comedy", is an emerging Christian comedienne. She is a committed Christian with a passion for Christ. She enjoys sharing her passion and faith for Christ through laughter. She, her husband of almost 17 years, and two children are members of Agape Embassy Ministries in Alexandria, Virginia with Pastor and First Lady, Drs. Joseph A. and Renée Mills, Jr.

Discovered by her First Lady after being called out for drawing laughter in the back of the sanctuary at a ladies meeting, she was told "get your material ready, because you are going up front at the next meeting". And as they say, the rest is history.

Getting giggles for God is what she enjoys most. She mixes real life stories with physical comedy and music that will have everyone up on their feet. Her comedy allows Christians to laugh at some of life's challenges, experiences and lessons. After all, we know that in the end we win! Kristy has laughed people to life and shared the stage with world famous artists including Helen Baylor, and Martha Munizzi.

When you book Kristy Smith for your event, you are creating an entertainment experience that people will talk about for months to come. Kristy's animated delivery and original material has captivated audiences in churches in the DC, Maryland, Virginia, and Delaware areas. She has ministered at Standard of Living Ministries, in DC, Faithful and True Christian Center, Burtonsville, MD, Faith Christian Center International in Charlottesville, VA, Spirit of Faith Christian Center in Brandywine, Maryland and most recently was a featured comedian at The Hall of Elegance in Mount Rainier, MD.
